The 19th annual Holiday Market will offer many handmade items for sale from local crafters and artists throughout the community. Come discover a unique vintage item and purchase gifts for all those special people on your holiday shopping list. Pick up fresh wreaths, swags and live poinsettias for your holiday decorating.

The Fall City Historical Society table with its great gift ideas will include the 2019 Fall City Calendar (THEN AND NOW), a selection of historic photo prints, Fall City holiday cards, magnets, the latest collector's beverage glass with a Salish Salmon design, and the basic books: "Preserving the Stories of Fall City" and "Jack's History of Fall City." There will also be a display on the Historic Signs Project.

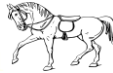

Enjoy lunch with EJ's Catering preparing high quality food dishes using organic ingredients. They will be serving hot sandwiches, soups, salads and desserts that are not only healthy, but aesthetically pleasing and tantalizingly delicious. Their motto is "healthy and hardy can co-exist".

This year's Bake Sale will be filled with many delicious goodies prepared by the Fall City United Methodist Women's group. Bring your friends and enjoy a cup of coffee and enter to win one of many unique raffle prizes.
